Dear Stan:

I am having a stag dinner on November 8, 1979, beginning with cocktails at 1700 hours, dinner at 1800, and concluding at about 1930-2000 hours. I'm planning to have a number of prominent Baltimore citizens there, including the Commissioner of Police for Baltimore City, the Chief of Police - Baltimore County, the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police, and others of that caliber.

The dinner is to be held at Chiapparelli's which is located in Little Italy. Chiapparelli's is famous for its Italian food, and I am sure that you would have an excellent meal and good fellowship. This would also give us an opportunity to get together and have a discussion after so many years.

I hope that you will be able to make it. If you would let me know, I'd greatly appreciate it.

Sincerely,

P.S. - If you can attend, I'll mail you a map on how to get to Little Italy.
